1. How to access the forum

Access to the forum is given by the organizers to persons registered and authorized to participate in the forum

It is obtained by following the following steps:

a. Registration

First you need to register to get an account.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

You do not need to register if you have already obtained an account to participate to the OSTST 2020 forum or to submit abstracts to previous OSTST meeting or IDS Workshop editions.

In this case, your current identifiers allow you to access to the SWOT ST forum, provided you are on the list of participants maintained by the organizers.

If you don't already have an account, click on « Subscribe » to create and set-up your account.

- b. Acceptance of your participation in the forum.

The organizer grants access rights to the forum. Once granted (after a delay of a few hours), your login to the site gives you access to the forum via the tab SWOT-ST FORUM in the menu.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

If you do not see the SWOT-ST FORUM Forum, the organizer has not (yet) given you permission.

2. Hierarchy of the subforums

The subforums are organized by Working Groups (sessions) and inside each subforum you will see all the topics of discussion. You can then click on one topic to see all the previous exchanges and post your comment.
